Nat Lathrop Music Scholarship

The Coalition for Hemophilia B is honored to present the Nat Lathrop Music Scholarship.

Candidate: This scholarship is for students in our hemophilia B community, ages 8-18, who are pursuing an interest in music and because Nat's family appreciates the connection between music and mental health. We want this scholarship to be an opportunity for other young people to explore music as a source of comfort and a way to connect with others. Applicants must have hemophilia B.

Deadline: October 14

How the Funds can be used: The intended purposes are to put music in kids' hands by providing funding for instrument rental/purchase, band/orchestra fees, music lessons, and band camp/performance camp. The Coalition for Hemophilia B also hopes to knock down the financial barrier too many kids experience when they show interest in music! Music is love, and we want to spread it all over!

Dr. William N. Drohan Scholarship

This scholarship is offered by the Coalition for Hemophilia B in memory of Dr. William N. Drohan, a well-known microbiologist and educator who lost his battle with metastatic lung cancer at age 60. He was a pioneer in using molecular biology to produce recombinant proteins and a visionary scientist who dedicated his life to improving the safety of blood and blood products. His other important contributions included investigating prion diseases in the blood supply and developing treatments for traumatic injuries, including fibrin-sealant bandages to stem hemorrhage. Dr. Drohan also served as a member of the board of the Coalition for Hemophilia B and was instrumental in our Coalition's creation.

Amount: Four or more scholarships awarded each year – various amounts

Candidate: Students with hemophilia B or their siblings with a need for funds and have applied to and been accepted at a vocational school or an accredited college/university or graduate school.

Deadline: June 28
